Land of Lincoln Credit Union

What we do

How does Land of Lincoln Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Land of Lincoln Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Make a wire transfer or show your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more information on your rights.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
